REVIEW

OF THE

SEA-BORNE TRADE

OF THE

BOMBAY PRESIDENCY

For the year 1892-93.

PORT OF BOMBAY.

Foreign Trade.

The total value of the Import and Export Trade of the Port of Bombay, for the official year ending 31st March 1893, exclusive of Government transactions, amounted to Rs. 1,05,42,72,488, which shows rather more than a recovery of the loss of 6 crores noticed during the preceding year. In 1890-91, the value reached nearly 105 crores, the highest amount ever recorded before the period now under review, and although this sum is now exceeded, it does not necessarily represent that the volume of trade has been larger, as the low rate of exchange ruling during the year must have considerably enhanced the value of both imports and exports.

The following table gives the value of the aggregate Sea-borne Trade of the Port of Bombay with Foreign Countries and with Indian Ports, exclusive of Government transactions, for the ten years, 1883-84 to 1892-93 :—

Year.	1883-84.	1884-85.	1885-86.	1886-87.	1887-88.	1888-89.	1889-90.	1890-91.	1891-92.	1892-93.

The total trade may be divided into two classes—

1. Foreign Trade.
2. Coasting do.

FOREIGN TRADE.

Foreign trade implies all private trade of the Port of Bombay with Foreign External Countries. The value during the year amounted to Rs. 86,27,77,498, or 81·83 per cent. of the total trade. There was an improvement on the preceding twelve months by over 6 crores, in which both imports and exports shared to an almost equal extent.

The following table shows the value of the trade for each year during the past ten years :—

Foreign Trade.

Treasure.

The most prominent feature in the trade is the large transactions in treasure. The value reaches over 20 crores of rupees, which is more than the previous year's figures by nearly 7 crores. The excess is equally divided between imports and exports.

It is seldom that the exports of gold are in excess of the imports; this, however, happened in the year 1878-79, but since then and up to the end of 1891-92, the balance has yearly been on the other side, the total value of net imports during these thirteen years being over 38 crores. During the year under report, however, there appears to have been a reaction, and the exports have exceeded the imports by nearly 3 crores in value, and as the net imports in the previous twelve months came to 1½ crores, the total loss in gold is approximately 4½ crores. This large deficiency has been fully replaced by receipts of silver, the net importations of which are valued at no less than 11½ crores, or more than in 1891-92 by close upon 4½ crores. The transactions in gold and silver have been carried on almost entirely with the United Kingdom. The actual net receipts of treasure have undergone no change and remain at about 8½ crores, which is considerably below the average of the past ten years.

The increase noticeable in the foreign trade was entirely due to the heavier transactions in treasure.

Imports.

The value of the total imports was greater than that of the previous year by nearly 3 crores of rupees, caused entirely by unusually large receipts of silver. Merchandise by itself somewhat declined, and although the value is less by only 49 lákhs, there appears to have been a considerable falling off in bulk. Cotton piece-goods, sugar, machinery and mill-work, copper, silk piece-goods, and coal, together represent half the total trade's value, the first named alone contributing over one quarter. The decline in the importations of cotton manufactures was large and important; the value of piece-goods was less than in 1891-92 by 71½ lákhs or 9½ per cent., and twist and yarn by 22 lákhs or 25 per cent., and as in the latter year there were smaller receipts in comparison with the year before by 10½ per cent. and 17½ per cent., respectively, the present decline is a serious check to the trade. Receipts of "raw silk" and "wool manufactures," appear also to have suffered much, and are valued at less by 26½ lákhs and 12 lákhs, respectively. "Grain and pulse" has lost 9 lákhs, spices 6 lákhs, and the following over 4 lákhs each in value, viz., provisions, steel, ivory and ivoryware, and coal. The imports of sugar, oils, and machinery and mill-work, which showed a falling off in 1891-92, were larger during the past twelve months, and considerably helped to swell the total value of the trade; there was also a good improvement in silk piece-goods. The increased values credited to these four articles do not, however, together much exceed the loss experienced in cotton manufactures. Cotton raw, jewellery, copper, and iron also helped in a lesser degree to enhance the value, although the latter showed a diminution in quantity.

Exports. Indian Produce.

Exports of Indian produce showed a small decline in value of about 27 lákhs of rupees, but in volume the falling off was, as in the case of imports, more apparent. The bulk of the trade, i.e., about 87 per cent., represents raw cotton, seeds, twist and yarn, grain and pulse, and drugs and medicines (including opium). Although cotton, and twist and yarn, together showed the large increase in value of nearly 2½ crores, the actual quantity shipped was larger by only 90,000 bales and 154 lákhs of pounds respectively, and seeds, which show an improvement of 48 lákhs rupees, were actually forwarded in smaller quantities than during the previous year. The most striking feature, however, in this branch of the exports is the great decline in shipments of "grain and pulse," the quantity having fallen by 66 lákhs of cwts., and the value by over 3 crores of rupees. Drugs and medicines represent a smaller value by 27 lákhs. Amongst minor articles of export, dyeing and tanning materials improved in value by over 23 lákhs, although there was a small decrease in quantity, and tea declined both in quantity and value by 15 lákhs of pounds and nearly 12 lákhs of rupees respectively.

Exports. Foreign Merchandise.

The trade in re-exports of foreign merchandise is carried on chiefly with Mozambique, Zanzibar, Mauritius, Aden, Arabia, Persia, and other countries out of Europe. The value is not quite 9 per cent. of the total foreign export trade. Although shipments of cotton piece-goods fell off this year by over 10 lákhs of rupees, they nevertheless represented nearly one-half of the trade. There was increased activity in the exports of refined sugar to Mozambique, Arabia, Persia, and Turkey in Asia, and the improvement of 13 lákhs of rupees under this head is the chief cause of the increase of 8 lákhs noticeable in the value of the whole trade. Unmanufactured ivory, which forms an important part of the shipments, showed a smaller value by nearly 4 lákhs. Raw wool, iron, and cotton twist and yarn, also represent a considerable portion of the trade; in the first two there was an improvement, and in the latter a falling off.

Exchange.

Exchange averaged 14·9*d.* for the year against 16·7 in 1891-92.

General Remarks.

The result of the year's transactions of the Port of Bombay with foreign countries was not altogether satisfactory. The rupee value of the trade is the highest on record, but a glance at the bulk of the various imports and exports in comparison with those of previous years, will show that the enhanced value is somewhat misleading, and does not necessarily represent an actual increase in the magnitude of the transactions. The trade must be said to have suffered in volume since 1891-92, and this in the face of the drop in silver, which might have been expected to give a stimulus to exports, is of some importance. The value of the total trade appears to have risen chiefly on account of the fall in exchange, and partially to higher prices being obtainable for some articles in the European markets. There is nothing to indicate that the additional imports of silver were required for trade purposes, and the increase under this head, coupled with large exports of gold, looks as if holders of the latter have been willing to exchange their stocks for the less expensive of the precious metals on account of the satisfactory rates obtainable.

United Kingdom.

The value of the trade between Bombay and the United Kingdom was larger during the past year and represents 42·49 per cent. of the total foreign trade, against 38·62 per cent. in 1891-92. The improvement was, however, entirely due to more extensive transactions in treasure. Dealings in merchandise appear to be getting less year by year, and have dwindled down from a value of nearly 28 crores of rupees in 1888-89 to 21 crores during the past twelve months. Both imports and exports shared in the loss to an almost equal extent. Cotton piece-goods, and twist and yarn, which represent the bulk of the imports, were taken in much smaller quantities, and show a fall in value of nearly 1 crore or over 11 per cent., and in comparison with the average of the previous ten years the deficiency was 14 per cent. The trade in steel, iron, woollen manufactures, and coal, all of which are important articles of import, has also considerably fallen off, and the quantities received were less than in 1891-92 by 41, 27, 24, and 12 per cent., respectively. The only improvement of any note in the importations is to be found in machinery and mill-work, the value of which was higher by 36 per cent. The most noticeable fluctuation in exports was a very large fall in the quantity of wheat in comparison with that of the previous twelve months, the deficiency amounting to 36 per cent., but the shipments in 1891-92 were comparatively heavy, and more than in 1890-91 by 72 per cent. Oil-seeds lost 27 per cent., but the exports of these also were very big last year, being more than twice as much as in the year before. Raw cotton, which used to take a prominent place in the export trade, is yearly and rapidly falling away. The shipments this year amounted to only 2,83,556 cwts., or about one-seventh the quantity which was forwarded in 1882-83; they were smaller than last year by 22 per cent., and than the average of the ten years ending 1891-92 by no less than 77 per cent. An export trade sprang up in 1891-92 in jowári and bájri, and the quantity shipped was 3,81,047 cwts., valued at 11¼ lákhs of rupees; previous to this, only small quantities, probably sample lots, had been exported in each of the three years ending 1887-88; the trade in this grain was, however, not maintained, and the quantity exported during the period under review has dropped by 86 per cent. Exports of indigo were nine times larger, and leather unwrought has been shipped to the extent of 2,383 cwts against nothing in the previous year. Transactions in treasure show that gold exports have exceeded the imports by over 3½ crores of rupees, a very unusual occurrence. The net importations of silver come to nearly 11 crores, and more than in 1891-92 by 131 per cent.

Next to the United Kingdom, China enjoys a far greater share in the trade than any other country, viz., 14·72 per cent. The Treaty Ports, and Hongkong, are included in this head. China.

The trade lost in value by 5 per cent., caused entirely by smaller transactions in treasure. Imports contributed largely to the increase noticeable in merchandise, and consisted mainly of silk raw, silk piece-goods, tea, and refined sugar, the value of these four articles alone representing over 86 per cent. of this branch of the trade. Importations of silk raw lost both in value and quantity, the deficiency in the latter being 18 per cent. of the receipts during the previous year. The chief improvement was in refined sugar, which is imported entirely from Hongkong, and the quantity increased by 88 per cent. In the other two articles above mentioned there was a comparatively small increase. Over three-fourths of the total imports are from Hongkong.

Indian cotton manufactures take a prominent place in the export trade in merchandise, representing over 62 per cent. of the total value, and an improvement on the previous year by 15 per cent. Twist and yarn, which is the chief form in which these goods are exported, is taken principally by Hongkong, and the quantity forwarded to this port is almost yearly increasing. The Treaty Ports have this year received 612 lákhs of pounds, or about one-third less than Hongkong, and the strides made in this direction of late have been very remarkable, the average quantity exported to these Ports during the last three years being 600 lákhs of pounds against an average of only 200 lákhs for the three years preceding. Of piece-goods, "grey" are practically the only exports, and the Ports have taken more in quantity than in 1891-92 by 66 per cent. and than the average of the past five years by 74 per cent. The trade with Hongkong in these goods has become small and unimportant. The opium trade with the last-named port is yearly falling away, the quantity shipped during the period under review was only 13,021 cwts., which is less than in the previous year by 15 per cent., and than the average of the five years ending 1891-92 by 31 per cent. The shipments of this drug to the Treaty Ports were larger than those to Hongkong by 61 per cent., and although, in comparison with 1891-92, there was a loss this year of 9 per cent. in the quantity, there was nevertheless an improvement of 10 per cent. on the average of the past five years.

Transactions in treasure consisted of imports only, and were divided almost equally between Hongkong and Treaty Ports. From the former, receipts of gold have fallen by 53 and silver by 57 per cent., and from the latter by 48 and 63 per cent., respectively.

France claims 8 per cent. of the trade, or about double that of any other country, the United Kingdom, and China excepted. The total value declined by 13 per cent. owing to restricted transactions in merchandise, especially in exports, but it was nevertheless larger than the average of the five years ending 1891-92 by 14 per cent. Nearly half of the value of imports represented silk piece-goods, pure and mixed, and the quantity received, although below that of last year, was well up to the average. Cotton piece-goods "coloured" showed an improvement in quantity of 29 per cent., and lead of 50 per cent. There were no fluctuations of any note in other articles. France.

The bulk of the export trade is made up of oil-seeds, and in comparison with the previous year, the quantity was less, but the value was higher. The principal seeds shipped are linseed, groundnut, til or gingelly, rape, and castor. There was a smaller trade in all descriptions with the exception of groundnut, which showed an improvement of nearly 15 per cent. On a comparison with the averages of the previous five years, the exports will, however, be found to be satisfactory.

Shipments of jowári and bájri were made in 1891-92 to the extent of 86,714 cwts., but they have not been repeated during the past twelve months.

The exports of raw cotton, though nearly 13 per cent. larger than in the previous year, were not much above the average of former years. Wheat shipments have fallen off in quantity by the large amount of 64 per cent., but in 1891-92 the exports were exceptionally large, omitting this year, the decline on the average of the previous five years was 7 per cent.

In treasure, gold showed lighter imports by nearly 6 lákhs of rupees and larger exports by 2½ lákhs, and the net imports of silver were 19½ lákhs against a net export the year before of 2½ lákhs.

Belgium.

The value of the trade with Belgium is about three-fifths of that with France. It is carried on entirely in merchandise and is increasing, being now 40 per cent. larger than what it was five years ago. For many years back there has been a yearly and substantial improvement in imports owing principally to the rapid growth of the trade in aniline and alizarine dyes. Other articles such as sheet and plate glass, hardware and cutlery, also show steady improvements. The above dyes appear to be received very favourably in Bombay, for the quantity imported this year, though less than that of the year before, was more than thirty times as much as the receipts of five years ago. Sheet and plate glass, and hardware and cutlery showed an augmentation on the average values imported during the previous five years by 38 and 68 per cent. respectively. There were also considerable improvements visible in the quantities of iron, and silk piece-goods. There was no falling off anywhere of any importance.

The value of exports remained stationary. Seeds took the most prominent position, and in quantity have improved by 24 per cent. on last year, and 29 per cent. on the average of the five years ending 1891-92. The shipments of raw cotton have not undergone much change and were still below the average of previous years. There was an export in 1891-92, for the first time, of 67,434 cwts. of jowári and bájri, but it was not repeated during the past twelve months. The trade in flour fell to 16,56,684 lbs., or 70 per cent. less than the preceding year, in 1890-91 there were no exportations, while in 1889-90 they amounted to 3,22,952 lbs., and previous to this latter year the shipments were small and irregular. Bran was exported for the first time in 1891-92 to the amount of about 3,000 cwts., and good markets seem to have been found for it, as the quantity shipped during the year under report was more than twelve times as much. There was a very considerable falling off in both wheat, and horns, especially in the former.

Germany.

With Germany the trade, which is all in merchandise, is of little less value than that with Belgium, but with no country was there such great progress during the past twelve months. Imports improved by 26 per cent. and exports by 54 per cent. Refined sugar caused the increase under the first head, the trade is of recent creation, and receipts for the first time reached large proportions in 1890-91, viz., 3,69,585 cwts. against only 11,696 cwts. the year before, but it was overdone, and a drop ensued in 1891-92 to 71,488 cwts., which has again been improved upon during the period under report by 137 per cent. The trade in silk piece-goods "pure and mixed" is almost yearly becoming bigger. Although it does not yet assume large proportions, the improvement on last year was 84 per cent. and 202 per cent. on the average of the past five years. Imports of woollen piece-goods, and aniline and alizarine dyes, have increased rapidly of late years.

On the export side raw cotton represents over 63 per cent. of the value of the trade. Shipments of this fibre have grown wonderfully since 1885-86, and were larger this year than last by 12 per cent. Wheat showed a large improvement. The grain appears to have been shipped for the first time in 1889-90, when 7,000 cwts. were forwarded, this was increased the next year to 22,000, in 1891-92 to over 1 lákh, while for the past twelve months the quantity reached nearly 5½ lákhs cwts. The trade in seeds has also expanded very rapidly of recent years, although shipments of some descriptions seem to be rather irregular: til or gingelly was larger in quantity than in the previous year by 340 per cent., rape by 250 per cent., castor by 43 per cent., and linseed by 30 per cent., and the quantity of these descriptions forwarded in 1891-92 was considerably more than that of any preceding year. Exports of poppy seed are small, and less than in 1891-92 by 37 per cent. The trade in myrabolams, which sprang up only a few years ago, was represented by 73,961 cwts., or double that of the previous year.

Italy.

The transactions in merchandise with Italy showed an improvement in value of 11 per cent. Importations, however, did not contribute towards this, as there was a fall in them of 28 per cent. due to lighter receipts of various articles such as apparel, clocks and watches, cotton piece-goods, beads and false pearls, and silk piece-goods "pure and mixed." In aniline and alizarine dyes, however, there was an augmentation in the trade since the previous year of 57 per cent., but in nothing else of any note.

Raw cotton, wheat, and seeds, represent practically the whole of the exports; nothing else, with the exception perhaps of indigo, is shipped in any appreciable quantities. The value of cotton exported was higher this year by 38 per cent., but the quantity by only 22 per cent. and to this may be attributed the increased value of total exports; the shipments were, however, smaller than the average of the past five years by 4 per cent. Seeds showed a small improvement in quantity on account of slightly larger exportations of castor, rape, and gingelly; other descriptions such as linseed and groundnut represent a smaller trade. The transactions in wheat were small, and were less in volume than in 1891-92 by 34 per cent. The shipments of this grain for the past three or four years are not to be compared to what they were for some years previous.

Austria.

There was a genuine and satisfactory improvement in the trade with Austria, and the value was greater than that of 1891-92 by 39 per cent. Imports of merchandise by themselves increased 23 per cent. in value, due to a larger and more valuable trade in cotton piece-goods "white, and coloured," silk piece-goods "pure and mixed," woollen piece-goods, glass and glass-ware, and aniline and alizarine dyes. It is somewhat remarkable that Austria, in the face of a very large decrease in the total importations into Bombay of cotton piece-goods from foreign countries, should have succeeded in more than doubling her trade in these goods. The receipts of silk goods are also more than twice as heavy as in the previous year. In apparel there was a drop in value of 16 per cent., and in minor articles of trade, such as cabinet-ware and furniture, hardware and cutlery, jewellery, copper, paper and pasteboard, and stationery, there were restricted transactions.

On the export side there was an improvement of 24 per cent. Raw cotton represents 95 per cent. of the total value; it was shipped in larger quantities than last year by 13 per cent., but was still below the average of the past five years by over 9 per cent. Myrabolams increased 19 per cent., and 20,995 cwts. of gingelly seed were exported against nothing the year before. In treasure, silver showed a net import value of 13¾ lakhs of rupees, and gold a net export of 29 lakhs. The gold exports of 1891-92 were almost nil.

Holland.

There is only a small trade with Holland. Imports consisted almost entirely of aniline and alizarine dyes. In 1886-87 the trade in these dyes amounted to only 36,000 ozs., but in the following year the quantity rose to 2,46,400 ozs., and since this receipts have varied considerably, but have never approached those of the past twelve months amounting to 62,31,280 ozs. Exports were represented principally by linseed, and wheat, 6,33,129 cwts. and 51,444 cwts. respectively, a falling off from the previous year's shipments of 28 per cent. in the former and 81 per cent. in the latter. No wheat was exported during the three years ending 1890-91, and the average quantity of linseed forwarded during the past five years is 4,43,920 cwts. The chief trading port of this country is Rotterdam.

Russia in Europe.

There is no import trade with Russia in Europe, but to the port of Odessa there was an export trade valued at 54¼ lakhs of rupees. Raw cotton represented nearly the whole of it, the quantity shipped being 1,83,670 cwts., or nearly four times that forwarded in the previous year, and more than the average of the five years ending 1891-92 by 91 per cent. The exports of myrabolams, and oil-seeds, though not large, showed a very considerable improvement on former years.

Persia.

With the exception of China, Persia has a larger share of the trade with Bombay than any other country out of Europe, the percentage being 2·85 of the total foreign trade. During the past twelve months, transactions with this country appear to have been curtailed in all directions. Imports of merchandise receded in value by 3 per cent. Fruits and vegetables "other sorts" represent an important item in this branch of the trade, and under this sub-head are included pomegranates, raisins, almonds, pistachio nuts, dried figs, walnuts, and manuka (a kind of raisin), &c. The total value came to over 11 lákhs of rupees, and has not fluctuated much of late years. Raw cotton is also a chief import; it is shipped principally from Bushire, and Bunder Abass, the quantity received this year was less than last year by 3,122 cwts., but the value was greater. It is supposed to be used in the Bombay Presidency for mixing or adulteration purposes, and does not appear to be re-exported under the name of Persian cotton. Imports of raw wool increased in quantity 12 per cent., dates 24 per cent., precious stones and pearls 23 per cent.; but in raw skins, seeds, assafœtida, wool manufactures (carpets, &c.), &c., there was a much smaller trade, and receipts of wheat were practically nil against 75,530 cwts. in the previous year.

The export trade fell 7 per cent. It consists largely of cotton piece-goods "coloured, printed or dyed," "grey," and tea, all foreign merchandise. The two descriptions of piece-goods were forwarded in smaller quantities by 14 and 27 per cent. respectively, whilst tea showed an improvement of 4 per cent. Shipments of foreign refined sugar nearly doubled. Most of the articles of minor importance showed a smaller trade. In exports of Indian produce, tea took the first place, although there was a large fall of more than one-half the quantity shipped in 1891-92. In this latter year shipments were exceptionally large, and considerable stocks remained on hand in Persia. In cotton "piece-goods," "twist and yarn," rice, and indigo, there was also a restricted trade. Transactions in treasure were not large, and consisted chiefly of silver, the imports and exports of which decreased.

Mauritius.

With the Island of Mauritius there is a large import trade in refined sugar, amounting during the last twelve months to 7,71,923 cwts., or 60 per cent. of the total receipts of this article into Bombay from foreign countries. The imports, however, showed a considerable falling off, and were much smaller than they have yearly been during the previous eight years. The late cyclone caused considerable damage to the crops and interfered much with the exportation of sugar from the Island. Imports of cocoanut oil more than doubled and were above the average of the five years ending 1891-92. Nothing else was received of any importance. The chief export is flour, ground presumably in Bombay, the quantity shipped has increased yearly from 58¾ lákhs of pounds in 1887-88 to 147 lákhs in the year under report. Piece-goods "grey, white, and coloured," of foreign manufacture, were forwarded in larger quantities by 22 per cent., and other articles—notably rice, pulse, and grain "other sorts"—also showed a bigger trade.

There were this year large exportations of silver, made by a bank in Bombay at the request of the Crown agents for the colonies in London. They were in connection with a loan granted by the Home Government to that of Mauritius at the time of the distress caused by the hurricane.

Arabia.

The trade with Arabia is carried on at the ports of Muskat, Bharein, Shore, Jedda, and Hodeida, but chiefly with the first named. Imports of merchandise were valued at 33½ lákhs of rupees, an improvement of 23 per cent. on 1891-92. The principal articles consisted of precious stones and pearls, fish-maws and shark-fins, dates, salted fish. Receipts of the first named increased in value by 79 per cent., and of the second by 30 per cent. in quantity; they were considerably above the average of the five years ending 1891-92; in the other two articles the trade was lighter than in the year before, but was about equal to that of previous years. Imports of salted fish were exceptionally heavy in 1891-92.

Cotton piece-goods "grey, white and coloured," chiefly of foreign manufacture, take a prominent place in the export trade. The foreign goods are sent principally to Muskat, and the quantity this year reached 93,55,857 yards, being 6 per cent. less than last year, but nearly 8 per cent. more than the average of the quinquennial period ending 1891-92. Indian manufactured goods were distributed amongst all the ports, and aggregated 34,82,437 yards, an improvement of 9 per cent. in the previous year, and 43 per cent. in excess of the average of the last five years. Indian goods would appear to be gaining on those of foreign manufacture, and the same thing was observable in exports of twist and yarn.

Rice, also forms a very important part of the exports, it is taken almost entirely by Muskat, and although the quantity forwarded during the past twelve months exceeded that of the previous year by 18 per cent., the trade is nevertheless losing ground. The averages of the shipments for the two quinquennial periods ending 1891-92 and 1886-87, are 2,79,053 cwts. and 2,80,960 cwts., figures larger than those of 1892-93 by 10 and 11¼ per cent. respectively. Exports of jowári and bájri were nearly double those of 1891-92, but were below the average of the five preceding years. Woollen manufactures (foreign) have gone forward in greatly diminished quantities, owing probably to the exceptionally heavy shipments of the previous year.

Transactions in treasure were not large, net imports of gold being 20½ lákhs of rupees and of silver 11 lákhs.

Japan.

The import and export trades in merchandise with Japan rose in value over the previous year by 5½ and 6 per cent. respectively, and also showed the very satisfactory improvements on the averages of the quinquennial period ending 1890-91 by imports 268 per cent. and exports 73 per cent. Imports have increased of late years owing chiefly to the development of the trade in raw silk, silk piece-goods, apparel, cabinet-ware and furniture, and Chinese and Japanese ware, in all of which, with the exception of the last named, there was a larger trade this year than in 1891-92. Camphor was imported in the latter year for the first time, in quantity amounting to 18,214 lbs., and it appears to have found a good market, for the amount increased during the period under report to 65,466 lbs. An entirely new trade sprang up during the year in matches, the value of the lot received being Rs. 3,492.

Exports are made up almost entirely of raw cotton, and cotton twist and yarn, of Indian produce and manufacture. Shipments of the raw material have made rapid strides since 1888-89, but represented a small falling off in quantity in the past year when compared with 1891-92, although the value was greater. In the manufactured article, the trade improved during the past twelve months, but the average of the exports for the three years ending 1892-93 shows the large fall in quantity of 58 per cent. when compared with that of the three preceding years.

Zanzibar.

The whole trade with Zanzibar was valued at little less than 100 lákhs, out of which treasure represented 15 lákhs, imports and exports of merchandise 22¼ and 60¾ lákhs respectively. Cloves and ivory "unmanufactured" accounted for three-fourths of the importations, but both showed signs of a declining trade, especially the latter, which was less in quantity than in the previous year by 40 per cent., and than the average of the quinquennial periods ending 1891-92 and 1886-1887 by 41 and 34 per cent., respectively. Cloves, fell 14 per cent. from 1891-92, and were less than the average of the five years ending with that year by 29 per cent. The remaining one-fourth of the imports was made up of miscellaneous articles, the chief of which were cocoanut kernel or kopra, and horns.

The outward trade from Bombay is composed largely of cotton piece-goods of both Indian and foreign manufacture, the latter predominating. Of the foreign goods "coloured" were by far the most important, the exports amounting to 85½ lákhs of yards, which was rather more than those of the year before and on a level with the average of late years. Indian goods of this description do not appear to be in much request, but, on the other hand, Indian piece-goods "grey" were shipped up to 143 lákhs of yards against only 10 lákhs of the foreign article. The quantity is, however, not increasing. Rice, ghee, and flour, were also exported in comparatively large quantities, the last named has increased much in importance since 1886-87 when the shipments were only 7⅓ lákhs of pounds. The trade in ghee has also developed greatly, and the transactions in the article this year were far larger than those of any previous year. Imports of gold were less, and of silver more, but the quantity in each case was small. Net exports of silver came to close upon 6 lákhs.

There does not appear to have been much activity in the trade in merchandise with Turkey in Asia during the past twelve months, and the value was nearly 16 per cent. less than that of the year before. Horses were imported in smaller numbers from Bussorah, but the trade in them has considerably increased of late, the number received during the five years ending 1891-92 was 9,996 against only 3,116 for the five years ending 1886-87. Wheat, and dates, which also come from the above port, and form a large part of the trade, were received in smaller quantities by 59 and 12 per cent. respectively. Imports of the former fluctuate very much, in some years they are large and in others insignificant. Receipts of ghee from Bussorah and Bagdad were less than two-fifths of what they were in 1891-92, but in that year they were exceptionally heavy. A new trade sprang up in jowári and bájri with Bussorah in 1891-92, the quantity imported being 63,610 cwts., but this was reduced to 43,060 cwts. during the past twelve months. Turkey in Asia.

The exports are composed largely of cotton piece-goods "coloured" and "grey;" the former are almost entirely of foreign manufacture and in the larger quantity; the latter are more evenly divided between foreign, and Indian. There was a decline all round, and the trade in foreign goods was below the level of former years. Twist and yarn of Indian manufacture was forwarded in smaller quantities, but the trade in this article has grown rapidly during the last five or six years. The average shipments for the quinquennial periods ending 1891-92 and 1886-87 are 6½ lákhs and 1 lákh of pounds, respectively, and the figures for the present year were 7½ lákhs. Exports of tea, both Indian and foreign, dropped very considerably, an occurrence which might have been expected after the big shipments in 1891-92. The Indian tea, however, appears to be gaining ground on the foreign. The number of gunny bags (power-loom) exported, principally to Bussorah, has increased yearly from 55,220 in 1886-87 to 9,59,850 during the year under review.

Transactions in gold were insignificant, and those in silver represented a net export of 11¼ lákhs of rupees.

With the Straits Settlements (Penang, and Singapore) there was an import and export trade in merchandise valued in the one case at 32½ and in the other at 38¾ lákhs of rupees, showing a decline on the year before by 21 and 7¾ per cent., respectively. The fall in imports was due to a restricted trade in betelnuts by 61 per cent, raw silk by 31 per cent., and in coffee, and pepper, by 59 per cent. in each case. The receipts of the first three articles were unusually heavy in 1891-92, pepper also was double in that year of what it was in the year before, but not above former years. The trade in this latter article has grown very much recently, the average imports for the quinquennial period ending 1891-92 is 8 lákhs of pounds against 2½ lákhs for a similar period ending 1886-87. Tin was imported in larger quantities by 10 per cent.; for many years past receipts have not fluctuated much. Nutmegs improved by 25 per cent. In 1887-88 there was a small trade in matches, but for the two following years it seems to have died away, and revived again in 1890-91, when the value of importations came to Rs. 450, this sum grew in the next year to Rs. 17,541, and for the twelve months under review it reached Rs. 47,991. Straits Settlements.

One of the chief exports is cotton piece-goods "coloured" of foreign manufacture, and shipments have increased in quantity on 1891-92 by 3¼ per cent., and on the average of the quinquennial period ending with that year by nearly 6 per cent. Indian goods of this description seem to be quite neglected, but a trade is springing up "in grey goods" which promises well, the shipments having increased from 2½ lákhs of yards in 1887-88 to 15½ lákhs during the past twelve months. The chief export, however, in Indian cotton manufactures is twist and yarn, the quantity shipped in 1891-92 was very heavy, viz. 39 lákhs of pounds, nearly double that of the year before, but the markets seem to have been oversocked, with the result that during the past twelve months the trade fell off by 57 per cent. The next export in order of importance comes under the heading "books and printed matter," and consisted largely of copies of the Korán and other Mahomedan religious books; the value is put down at 1¼ lákhs of rupees, or little less than the year before.

Dealings in gold were very small, silver imports were nil, and exports nearly 3¾ lákhs.

Ceylon.

There is only a small trade with the Island of Ceylon. Imports of merchandise, consisting mainly of tea, cardamoms, cocoanut oil, and coffee, fell in value by 32 per cent. In 1887-88 the receipts of coffee were 10,863 cwts. and those of tea 84,524 lbs., the former have gradually dwindled away to 302 cwts. during the past twelve months, while those of tea, although less than the year before, have grown to 6 lákhs of pounds. Imports of cocoanut oil were considerably below the average of the past five years.

The increase in the value of exports was 5 per cent. and was due to more activity in shipments of Indian produce, consisting principally of flour, pulse, rice, and gram, which showed a larger trade in quantity than the year before by 16, 42, 132, and 56 per cent. respectively. In wheat, there was a fall. Exports of cotton piece-goods seem to be confined almost entirely to those of foreign manufacture, and in "grey" only there was a small increase; other descriptions showed a decline. Silk piece-goods, and woollen piece-goods, both of foreign manufacture, were also shipped in lighter quantities.

There were no transactions in gold, and silver exports declined by 21¼ lákhs or 46 per cent. Imports were insignificant.

United States.

With the States the transactions in merchandise increased in value from 16 to 22 lákhs of rupees. Imports of kerosine oil improved 79 per cent., but were not above the average of former years; the receipts in 1891-92 were exceptionally light. Cotton piece-goods "grey," tobacco; and clocks and watches, all showed a smaller trade. Exports are generally insignificant, but this year there are various articles in the trade, such as cabinet-ware and furniture, earthen-ware and porcelain, jewellery, natural curiosities, toys and requisites for games, &c., which were shipped in connection with the Chicago Exhibition.

Distribution of the Foreign Trade in Merchandise with the Port of Bombay during the past 10 years. A few countries having only a small trade are omitted.

Apparel.

The imports of apparel decreased in value by 6 per cent. It is received principally from the United Kingdom and in smaller quantities from Austria, France, Egypt, Germany, and Hongkong. From the last two named countries alone there was an increase. This heading may be divided into three sub-heads, viz., "apparel proper," "boots and shoes" and "military uniforms." In the first two items there was a fall of 7 and 5 per cent. respectively, and in the last an improvement of 35 per cent. The various articles coming under the heading of "apparel proper" are not registered separately, but it is reported that the decline under this sub-head is caused chiefly by lighter importations of gold thread from Austria, and Egypt.

Coal.

The import trade in coal is carried on almost entirely with the United Kingdom, the only other country from which any was received is Australia, and thence only to a very small extent, viz., 1 per cent. of the total imports. The decline of 10 per cent. noticeable in the trade is accounted for principally by heavier receipts of country coal from the port of Calcutta, the quantity received in 1891-92 was only 205 tons, against 50,322 tons during the past twelve months, the increase being almost equivalent to the lesser imports from foreign countries. The demand for coal was also somewhat reduced on account of all factories having ceased to work on Sundays throughout the year.

Coffee.

The trade in coffee was not very satisfactory, and imports showed a decline in quantity by 60 per cent. The berry is usually imported into Bombay from the Straits Settlements, and Ceylon, but that received from the latter country is yearly falling away on account of planting being discontinued there in favour of tea, and cardamoms. Most of the coffee grown in the Settlements was this year sent direct to Europe owing to the favourable prices ruling there, and little only was available for shipment to Bombay. Re-exports also, in sympathy with imports, decreased and were less by 38 per cent. The chief markets are found in Muskat, Persia, Mauritius and Turkey in Asia, all of which countries have taken less.

The exports of Indian coffee were likewise smaller by 27 per cent. Muskat, which is the principal market for this description, took about the same as the year before, Mauritius a little more, but Persia less by 39 per cent.

The general decline in the trade is attributed to short crops both in India and the Straits Settlements.

Raw cotton showed a larger trade throughout, and imports by themselves improved in quantity by 31 per cent. The fibre was imported, this year, chiefly from Persia, and in smaller quantities from Egypt, the United Kingdom, Muskat, and Mekran and Sonmiani. The quantity received from Egypt was 28,548 cwts., or more than four times that of the year before, and from the United Kingdom (American cotton) 19,550 cwts., an improvement of 84 per cent. These two descriptions, which are of a superior quality to Indian cotton, are used for mixing with the latter to enable a superior class of yarn to be manufactured. The cotton received from the countries in Asia is of an inferior quality and is said to be used much for adulteration purposes; it is not re-exported from Bombay under the same name as it is imported, or even as foreign cotton. Exports of the Indian product vary from year to year; the quantity depends principally on whether the crops are good or bad, early or late. The value this year represented 28 per cent. of the total value of exports of Indian produce, and the quantity was more than that of 1891-92 by 8 per cent., but less than the average of the decennial period ending with that year by 7 per cent. Shipments are kept moderately high from year to year on account of the increase in the receipts of Bengal cotton into Bombay for subsequent shipment; if it were not for this, cotton exports would, for some years past, have shown a falling off. The quantity of Bengal cotton exported during the period under report was about 21 per cent. of the whole exports, and was larger than that of 1891-92 by over 87,000 bales of 3½ cwts. each. The United Kingdom, Hongkong and Japan took less cotton than in the previous year by 22, 67, and 8 per cent. respectively. The trade with the first-named country is yearly and rapidly being diverted to the Continental ports. Nearly all other countries received more, particularly Russia in Europe (Odessa), which took nearly three times as much. Italy, Germany and Austria improved their trade in the staple by 22, 12, and 13 per cent. respectively. Raw Cotton.

The most important of all imports are cotton piece-goods. They this year represented a value of 27 per cent. of the total imports, which is exactly the same percentage that raw cotton took amongst the exports. The trade was dull, and lacked activity throughout the year. In value there was a fall of 71 lakhs of rupees, or 8 per cent. in comparison with that of 1891-92, and in this latter year the value was again less than that of the preceding year by nearly 91 lakhs, thus in two years the imports have declined by about 162 lakhs. During the past twelve months there were several causes at work to disturb the trade, the chief of which was the continued fall in the rate of exchange, the strike of the mill operatives in Manchester, and a sudden rise in the rates of the raw material in the latter part of the year. All these had the effect of raising the prices of the goods and placing them beyond the means of consumers. "Grey" and "white goods" arrived in smaller quantities by 11 and 4 per cent. respectively, but "coloured" showed a larger trade by 8 per cent. The latter hold their position better in the Bombay market, as there is not much competition locally. Cotton Piece-goods.

The falling off in imports restricted the re-exports, which became smaller in value by 6 per cent., but the deficiency was made up in larger exports of Indian piece-goods by 7 per cent. Coloured goods of foreign manufacture were re-exported in much larger quantities than any other foreign description, for the reason before stated that the manufacture in Bombay is limited. Persia took a far larger quantity than any other country, not only of "coloured" but of "grey" and "white" also. Of the Indian made fabrics "grey sheetings" seem to be exported in the largest quantities, they, however, showed a falling off this year by 10 per cent. The principal markets are found in Zanzibar, and Mozambique. Grey T cloth, which is also largely shipped, improved 33 per cent., it is taken chiefly by the Treaty Ports, Zanzibar, and Mozambique; the first two took more by 37 and 18 per cent. respectively, and the last less by 13 per cent.

Long cloth showed a bigger trade by 19 per cent.; more has been forwarded to the Treaty Ports by no less than 190 per cent., exports in this direction have increased largely of late years. With Aden the trade fell 39 per cent., and with Turkey in Asia 27 per cent. Other countries took only small quantities, but there was an improvement in almost every case.

Cotton Twist and Yarn.

The receipts of cotton twist and yarn fell off in quantity by 24 per cent. Nearly the whole trade is carried on with the United Kingdom. The imported yarn is of finer manufacture than that generally produced locally, and is used principally by hand-loom weavers for making superior descriptions of textiles. The reason of the dullness which prevailed throughout the year is ascribed largely to the same causes which influenced the imports of piece-goods. The decrease was largely perceptible in 40*s*. mule, and 30*s*. water, and this may also be partly due to more attention being lately given in the Bombay mills to the manufacture of these yarns. Dyed yarn likewise showed a much smaller trade, caused no doubt, to some extent, by the process of dyeing being carried on with more activity locally.

Re-exports were not large, and were less than the year before by 19 per cent.; more than one-half was taken by Persia, and smaller quantities by Muskat, Aden, and Zanzibar.

Of the Indian products, next to raw cotton and seeds, "twist and yarn" commanded the largest export trade with a value equal to 16 per cent. of the total exports of Indian produce. The improvement in the quantity shipped during the past twelve months was 9 per cent., which is considerably more than a recovery of the loss of 2 per cent. experienced in the preceding year. Nearly the whole quantity was forwarded to the China ports. The bulk of the trade was made up of mule 16*s*. to 24*s*., next came mule 15*s*. and lower numbers; of the higher counts there were only small exports. The shipments to Japan fell very considerably in 1891-92, and mule 16*s*. to 24*s*. showed only about half the trade of the year before, while exports of the higher counts entirely ceased, as well as those in water 20*s*. and lower, and the only revival visible during the past twelve months was a slight improvement in mule 16*s*. to 24*s*. The construction of spinning mills in Japan is the reason assigned for the falling off of this trade.

Dyeing and Tanning Materials.

Aniline and alizarine dyes represented a value of 43¾ lákhs of rupees, or 81 per cent. of the total imports of dyeing and tanning materials. These dyes appear to find very favourable markets in Bombay, and the quantity imported is yearly increasing. They are received chiefly from Belgium, this year to the extent of 561 lákhs of ounces, or twice the average of the quinquennial period ending 1891-92. From Austria 89 lákhs were imported, or six times the average for the same period, and the United Kingdom forwarded 73 lákhs, or only one-half of the above average. The receipts from Holland rose from 8 lákhs in 1891-92 to 62 lákhs in the period under review, but it seems doubtful whether all this quantity is the produce of that country, a large portion of it has probably been manufactured in Germany, or in other countries on the Continent, and shipped at Rotterdam for the convenience of the shippers. Italy, and Germany, are also both gradually increasing their transactions in these dyes, although from the latter country a somewhat smaller quantity was received this year. Looking at the trade for some years past, that with Austria seems to be the most thriving, while that with the United Kingdom is falling away. It is said that the aniline dyes from the latter country are of a more costly description than those received from the Continent, and are therefore not so readily taken up by consumers, who have a partiality for the cheaper article. It is known that imports of alizarine dyes are increasing more rapidly than those of aniline, but as the two are classed together, no separate figures for each are available. The re-exports of these dyes, although considerably larger than during the previous year, were still small. They were sent chiefly to Turkey in Asia. Exports of Indian materials consisted principally of myrabolams, which represented in quantity 92 per cent. of this trade. The shipments have, however, fallen off since 1891-92 by 7 per cent. The United Kingdom took the largest quantity, but less than in the previous year by 26 per cent. Germany received twice as much, and Austria more by 19 per cent. Other countries took smaller quantities, but there was an improvement in every case. Exports are regulated principally by the size of the crops.

Grain and Pulse.

The importations of grain and pulse are not, as a rule, large, and compared with the previous year there was a falling off by 46 per cent. Wheat, forwarded chiefly from Turkey in Asia and in smaller quantities from Persia, generally represents the bulk of the trade. The former country this year, sent less by 59 per cent. than in 1891-92, but considerably more than the average of the five years ending 1890-91. The imports in 1891-92 were exceptionally large owing to the favourable prices obtainable in Bombay on account of the good demand for the cereal in Europe. The latter country, instead of shipping wheat during the past twelve months, has, owing to bad harvests, imported from Bombay 8,940 cwts.

In the export trade of Indian wheat there was a large drop of 43 per cent. in quantity when compared with 1891-92, but in this latter year shipments had been much stimulated on account of the failure of the Russian crops. On comparing the exports of the present year with the average of the quinquennial periods ending 1890-91 and 1885-86, a deficiency of 5 and 12 per cent. respectively is perceptible. These averages show that more wheat went forward during the five years ending 1885-86 than in the following five years. The United Kingdom took the largest quantity, viz., 35½ lákhs cwts., but this was less than the previous year's total by 36 per cent. France came next with 17¼ lákhs or less by 64 per cent., then Italy with 6¾ lákhs or less by 35 per cent., and Belgium with 5¼ lákhs or less by 60 per cent. Germany took 5¾ lákhs, or nearly five times as much as in 1891-92. Shipments of jowári and bájri fell away by about one-half. The chief markets for this grain are found in Abyssinia, but less went there this year by 19 per cent. The United Kingdom and Germany also took a smaller quantity, whilst with Belgium, France, and Italy, the trade has ceased.

Wines, and Liqueurs.—Beverages coming under this sub-head showed a decline all round, more particularly champagne, claret, and sherry, which were imported in decreased quantities by 23 per cent., 31 per cent., and 11 per cent. respectively, but in all of these there was an increase in 1891-92 on the imports of the preceding year. In port wine, and liqueurs, the fluctuations are very small. Germany seems to be very successful in forcing her spirits, and wines, on the markets, owing, it is said, to the cheapness at which they can be laid down in Bombay, but they are reported to be of inferior quality. This country from the year 1887-88 to the period now under report has increased her exports of brandy from 832 gallons to 6,699 gallons, of rum from 8 gallons to 853 gallons, of port wine from 318 gallons to 2,501 gallons, and of sherry from 108 gallons to 1,730 gallons. No other country showed any improvement which can at all approach this. Sherry from Spain is falling away, and receipts of port wine from Portugal were insignificant.

Machinery and Mill-work.

The receipts of machinery and mill-work into Bombay increased in value since the previous year by 35 per cent. Nearly the whole of it was received from the United Kingdom. When the value only of an article is registered, as in the present case, it is somewhat difficult to ascertain whether an enhanced value represents also a corresponding increase in bulk; there are many causes, and not the least amongst them exchange, which may induce prices to fluctuate considerably. It is, however, known that some new mills are in course of erection in Bombay for which machinery was imported during the year.

Metals.

The most important of the metals imported are iron, steel, copper, tin, and quicksilver. There was a decline in quantity in the trade of the first two by 1 per cent. in the one case and 30 per cent. in the other, and an improvement in the latter three by 3, 10, and 40 per cent. respectively.

Iron is imported chiefly from the United Kingdom and in smaller quantities from Belgium, but the latter country, with a metal somewhat inferior in quality and cheaper in price, is rapidly driving the English iron out of the market. In 1882-83, or ten years ago, the United Kingdom forwarded 11¼ lákhs cwts. against Belgium's 11,000 cwts., and for the year under review, the former country sent 6¼ lákhs or little more than half the above, and the latter 4⅜ lákhs or forty times as much. Further comparisons show that the quantity of Belgian iron imported during the past twelve months represented an increase on the previous year by 90 per cent., was more than double the average of the five years ending with 1891-92, and seven times the average of the five years ending with 1886-87, whilst imports of English iron have fallen since 1891-92 by 27 per cent., and were less than the averages of the quinquennial periods ending with that year and 1886-87 by 44 per cent. and 49 per cent. respectively.

Steel is now received from the United Kingdom, and Belgium in almost equal quantities. Ten years ago the first-named country forwarded forty-one times as much as the latter, and although since then the United Kingdom has slightly improved her exports, she has not made nearly such rapid progress in the trade as Belgium has. During the period under review the receipts from the United Kingdom fell by 41 per cent., whilst those from Belgium receded by only 1 per cent. The rapid strides lately made by the latter country are attributed to the imports of a large quantity of steel hooping which has been laid down in Bombay at a cheaper rate than it could be imported from the United Kingdom. This hooping does not appear to be of inferior quality, but the process of manufacture is said to cost less in Belgium.

Tin.—Imports improved in quantity by 10 per cent., and were about equal to the average of the past five years. Nearly the whole quantity was received from the Straits Settlements.

Quicksilver.—The United Kingdom is the principal country from which this metal is drawn, and although receipts from that country, this year, improved by 3 per cent., they were still below the average of former years. In 1891-92 a quantity of quicksilver amounting to 14,250 lbs. was for the first time received from Austria, and during the period under review this was increased to more than three times as much. This metal is used largely in Gujarát districts in the manufacture of Indian cinnabar, and corrosive sublimate.

A quantity of iron, equal to 23 per cent. of the imports, was re-exported, chiefly to Persia, Turkey in Asia, and Hongkong. Copper also to the extent of 17,697 cwts. was re-exported, principally to Persia, Arabia, and Turkey in Asia. Re-exports of tin represented in quantity more than one-fourth of the imports; it was taken to a large extent by Persia and Turkey in Asia.

Oils. There was an improvement in the importation of oils by 18 per cent. in quantity.

Kerosine oil represented 94 per cent. of the trade, and continued to find favourable markets on account of its cheapness and superior illuminating power. The demand is likely to continue to increase, although in some years the imports may show a decline and in others a large augmentation, fluctuations which are caused by the irregularity in the arrival of vessels laden with the illuminant. The Russian oil is inferior to the American, but owing to its cheapness it is taken in much larger quantities. The latter country, however, increased her exports to Bombay this year by 79 per cent. against an improvement in the Russian oil of only 11 per cent.

Railway Plant and Rolling Stock. The whole of the imports of railway plant and rolling stock came from the United Kingdom. The value was registered at 56½ lákhs, or more than the year before by nearly 4 lákhs. The increase was due chiefly to larger receipts of rails, fish plates and sleepers, a quantity of which was required for the Godhra-Rutlam Railway, which is still under construction.

Seeds. The total trade in seeds aggregated over 99½ lákhs cwts., out of which exports represented nearly 99½ lákhs.

Imports consisted of sahjira, poppy, and gingelly, received chiefly from Persia; the last description only came in small quantities from Turkey in Asia, and Zanzibar.

Exports of Indian seeds showed a small decline in quantity, and an improvement in value of 7 per cent. They were made up principally of linseed, rapeseed, gingelly, and groundnuts.

Of linseed, France took the largest quantity, viz., 42 per cent. of the total exports, less than in the previous year, but more than the average of the five years ending 1891-92 by 30 per cent. Belgium during the last three years has also taken large quantities, amounting to 19 lákhs cwts. against only 7 lákhs during the three preceding years. Holland, in 1891-92 and during the past twelve months, has increased her trade in this seed very considerably. Less was sent to the United Kingdom than in 1891-92 by 37 per cent., but in this latter year exports to this country were exceptionally heavy.

Rapeseed.—Exports to Belgium came to nearly 8 lákhs cwts., larger than those to any other country and double of what they were in 1891-92. France has taken 7 lákhs, or less by 3 per cent. Germany for the three years ending 1888-89 imported none of this seed, in the following year, however, she took 1 lákh cwts., which was increased in 1891-92 to 1½ lákhs, a large jump was then made to 5½ lákhs in the past twelve months. The reason assigned for the increased demand on behalf of Germany, and Belgium, was short crops in Europe.

Gingelly.—France received nearly 60 per cent. of all the exports of this seed, but less than in the previous year by 18 per cent. Italy came next with a trade of 3½ lákhs cwts., or 1 lákh more than in 1891-92. Other countries took only small quantities, but in the majority of cases showed improvements.

Groundnuts.—The total shipments came to 11¾ lákhs cwts., or more than in 1891-92 by 1 lákh. France took over 9 lákhs, and this with the 8 lákhs of the year before, makes more than 17 lákhs for the past two years, or an average of about 8½ lákhs, which is nearly twice as much as that of any previous year.

The quantity of seeds exported depends much upon the outturn of the crops.

China is the principal market from which supplies of raw silk are drawn, and imports therefrom depend much upon the crops in that country and the demand existing in European countries. Receipts this year dropped in quantity by 18 per cent., but were less than the average of the five years ending 1891-92 by only 5 per cent. The imports in this latter year were exceptionally heavy. Silk—Raw.

Re-exports of silk represented, in quantity, about 5 per cent. of the imports; the chief markets were found in Egypt, Arabia, and France.

Under the heading silk piece-goods are comprised goods made solely of silk, and goods made partly of silk and partly of some other substance. The total trade improved in quantity by 11 per cent. Silk Piece-goods

The pure silk goods are imported largely from Hongkong, and of late years the quantity has increased considerably; it amounted to 57 lákhs of yards during the past twelve months, which is an improvement on the preceding year by 17 per cent. France is making rapid progress in this trade, and this year forwarded 6½ lákhs yards, or more by 10 per cent. than in 1891-92, in which the receipts were greater than the average of the five preceding years by no less than 133 per cent. The Treaty Ports sent 4¾ lákhs yards, or an increase of 48 per cent., and considerably more than the average of the previous five years.

Mixed goods are received chiefly from France, and the quantity from that country came to 19½ lákhs yards, or less than in 1891-92 by 17 per cent. Austria sent 3¾ lákhs yards or more by nearly 90 per cent., and considerably in excess of the average of the past five years. Receipts from Germany were 1½ lákhs yards, or more by 130 per cent. than in 1891-92, and than the average of the quinquennial period ending with that year by 147 per cent.

Spices.

There was a decline in the imports of spices of 35 per cent. Cloves, this year, represented about one-half of the trade, and nearly the whole quantity, i.e., over 48 lákhs lbs., was imported from Zanzibar; there was, however, a falling off since the previous year of 14 per cent., and compared with the average of the five years ending 1891-92 there was a deficiency by 29 per cent.; this is said to be due partly to shorter crops, and partly to increased demand for direct shipments to European countries.

Betelnuts made up more than one-fourth of the imports, and were received principally from the Straits Settlements. There was a decline this year in quantity of 59 per cent. when compared with 1891-92 and with the average of the quinquennial period ending with that year of 29 per cent., but on comparison with the average of the preceding five years there was an improvement of 8 per cent. It is reported that there was a very good crop of betelnuts in Malabár and that large quantities were shipped from this coast to Bombay, which interfered considerably with imports from the Straits Settlements. The interruption was probably only temporary, as the trade, in these nuts, with foreign countries has for some years past shown signs of a steady improvement. Pepper also was received in smaller quantities by 59 per cent. for the same reason assigned for the decline in betelnuts.

Re-exports of spices consisted almost entirely of cloves amounting to over 9 lákhs of pounds, more than half of which was taken by China, and smaller quantities by the United Kingdom, Straits Settlements, Arabia, and Aden.

Exports of Indian spices came to 60 lákhs lbs. and were larger by 16 per cent. Pepper accounted for nearly 36 lákhs, and was forwarded chiefly to Persia, Aden, United Kingdom, Egypt, Turkey in Asia, and Arabia, each country taking more than in the preceding year, especially the United Kingdom, which increased her imports by 642 per cent. The augmentation in shipments is stated to be due to the good crops in the country, and to the cheap rate at which the spice was being offered. Dry ginger was exported to the extent of nearly 16 lákhs lbs., or less by 10 per cent.; it went principally to Aden, Arabia, Persia, and Turkey in Asia.

Sugar.

There was increased activity in the sugar trade, and both imports and re-exports improved in quantity by 8 per cent. in the one case and 44 per cent. in the other. Imports were equal to the average of former years, but re-exports were larger than the average of the quinquennial period ending 1891-92 by 36 per cent. Supplies were drawn principally from Mauritius, Hongkong and Germany. From the first-named country less was imported by 17 per cent. and from the other two more was received by 89 per cent. and 137 per cent. respectively As has been previously stated in this review, the late cyclone in Mauritius caused an interruption in the trade, and fearing short supplies from that country, both Hongkong, and Germany forwarded larger quantities to Bombay, but the receipts from Mauritius did not fall so low as was anticipated, and the market in consequence became somewhat overstocked, with the result that prices fell, and caused a greater demand to set in for re-exports to Persia, Turkey in Asia, and Arabia.

Tea.

Although there was a decline of 5 per cent. in the imports of tea compared with 1891-92, they were nevertheless larger than the averages of the quinquennial periods ending with that year, and 1886-87, by 22 per cent. and 80 per cent. respectively. These comparisons show that the trade has increased considerably of late years. It is imported in two descriptions, i.e., black and green, the latter predominating. About 74 per cent. of the imports came from the Treaty Ports, the remainder being drawn principally from Hongkong, Ceylon, Java, and Straits Settlements. Nearly the whole quantity from the Ports is green tea, and that received from other countries, with few exceptions, is black tea. A large quantity, i.e., 33 lákhs lbs., or close upon three-fifths of the total imports, and consisting almost entirely of green, was re-exported to Persian ports, whence it is said to find its way into the interior. Small quantities of black were also forwarded to Turkey in Asia, Arabia and the Eastern Coast of Africa.

A large fall occurred in the exports of Indian tea, amounting to 58 per cent. The principal demand for this description also comes from Persia, and the decline is attributed to large stocks remaining on hand from the excessive shipments made to this country in 1891-92, which were larger than those of the year before by 257 per cent. If the exports of Indian tea this year are compared with the average for the five years preceding 1891-92, they will be found to show an increase of 139 per cent.

Imports of wool were small in comparison with the exports, but the trade is increasing; the quantity received during the year under report was 29½ lákhs lbs., and the average receipts for the quinquennial periods ending 1891-92 and 1886-87 are 28 lákhs and 15½ lákhs respectively. Nearly the whole is imported from Persia. This wool is generally re-exported to the United Kingdom. In exports of Indian wool there was a small decline of 1 per cent on the previous year, and 7 per cent. on the average of the last five years. It was nearly all taken up by the United Kingdom only, small quantities going to Japan, and France. Wool.

The quantity of woollen piece-goods imported this year came to 54¼ lákhs yards and showed a smaller trade than in 1891-92 by 15 per cent., but it was about equal to the average of former years. The decline was caused by lighter importations from the United Kingdom, and Germany. Re-exports represented in quantity little more than 7 per cent. of the imports, and were 16 per cent. less than the shipments in the previous year. The total coasting trade, imports and exports, of the Port of Bombay, exclusive of Government transactions, was valued at Rs. 19,14,94,990 against Rs. 18,64,20,250 in 1891-92, showing an improvement of Rs. 50,74,740. Contrasted with the average of the preceding five years, there has been an augmentation in the trade of 34 lakhs, or about 1·8 per cent.

Under imports, merchandise represented a value of Rs. 10,20,32,981, showing an increase of Rs. 24,44,257 over the preceding year, while transactions in treasure amounted to Rs. 3,82,739 and showed a falling off of Rs. 6,24,378. Under exports, merchandise was valued at Rs. 8,40,78,232 and treasure at Rs. 50,01,038, showing an improvement of Rs. 30,81,705 and Rs. 1,73,156 respectively.

The import coasting trade of the Port of Bombay represents, for the most part, shipments from coast ports of country produce for subsequent exportation to foreign countries, while the export coasting trade comprises principally foreign merchandise sent from Bombay to the interior viâ the coast ports.

The import coasting trade is recorded under two divisions :—(1) Imports of Indian produce and (2) imports of foreign merchandise. The former was valued at Rs. 10,00,45,975 against Rs. 9,77,77,801 and the latter at Rs. 19,87,006 against Rs. 18,10,923, both showing larger transactions by Rs. 22,68,174 and Rs. 1,76,093 respectively.

Under imports of Indian produce, the principal articles of trade are coal, coffee, coir, cordage and rope, raw cotton, cotton twist and yarn, dyeing and tanning materials (chiefly indigo, myrabolams and turmeric), cocoanuts, cocoanut kernel, grain and pulse, skins, gunny bags, gunny cloth, spirits, cocoanut oil, seeds (castor, groundnut, rape, and til or gingelly), spices, sugar, tea, teakwood, and raw wool.

Of the articles noted above, coal, coffee, cordage, raw cotton, dyeing and tanning materials, skins, gunny cloth, seeds, spices, sugar, and teakwood showed larger transactions in the year under review, while the remainder exhibited a falling off.

The imports of foreign merchandise are comparatively small, the principal articles being cotton piece-goods (grey, white and coloured), refined sugar, dried fruit (chiefly dates), and raw wool; in the first three named there was a larger trade, and in the last a diminution.

In the imports of treasure, gold was valued at Rs. 15,070 and silver at Rs. 3,67,669 against Rs. 6,570 and Rs. 10,00,547, respectively, of the previous year.

Like the import, the export coasting trade is also divided into two classes :—(1) Exports of Indian produce and (2) exports of foreign merchandise; the former were valued at Rs. 3,97,90,252 against Rs. 3,79,30,958 and the latter at Rs. 4,42,87,980 against Rs. 4,30,65,569 in 1891-92, showing an improvement of Rs. 18,59,294 and Rs. 12,22,411, respectively.

Exports of treasure showed a value of Rs. 50,01,038 against Rs. 48,27,882 in 1891-92, the transactions in gold being valued at Rs. 1,29,760 against Rs. 1,32,961 and those in silver at Rs. 48,71,278 against Rs. 46,94,921 last year.

The principal articles of Indian produce exported from Bombay are raw cotton, cotton twist and yarn, cotton piece-goods, cocoanuts and cocoanut kernel, grain and pulse, gunny bags and gunny cloth, metals, vegetable oils, flour, seeds, spices, sugar, and teakwood. With the exception of cotton twist and yarn, cotton piece-goods and oils, which showed a decline, the trade in all the other articles enumerated was well maintained, and in many cases there were satisfactory improvements.

Of foreign merchandise exported, the principal articles are apparel, cotton twist and yarn, cotton piece-goods, aniline and alizarine dyes, hardware and cutlery, liquors, metals, paper and pasteboard, silk, and silk piece-goods, spices, sugar, woollen piece-goods, kerosine oil, dried fruit (chiefly dates), glass and glassware, and matches. As in the case of articles of Indian produce, there was no decline to report in any of the particular goods exported, with the exception of cotton twist and yarn, and piece-goods.

TRADE OF THE SUBORDINATE PORTS.

The aggregate value under all heads of the trade of the continental ports of the Bombay Presidency, exclusive of Government stores and treasure, amounted to Rs. 6,93,96,462 for the year 1892-93, showing a decline of Rs. 4,35,927, or about 6 per cent. on the trade of the previous year. Compared with the average of the preceding five years the value was smaller by Rs. 8,63,401.

The whole trade is compared with that of the preceding year under the usual sub-heads as follows :—

The foreign trade at the Coast ports is not large, and as mentioned in previous reports represents chiefly cargoes brought direct by Arab and other vessels from the Persian Gulf, Mekran and Sonmiani, &c., as well as transhipments made at Bombay of merchandise from these and other foreign ports. The imports of merchandise were valued at Rs. 4,53,376 nearly the same as in 1891-92 and the exports at Rs. 333 against Rs. 137 of the preceding year. The transactions in treasure amounted to Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,300 under imports and exports respectively.

United Kingdom.—The falling off in the trade with the United Kingdom was chiefly due to smaller importations of coal at Bombay for subsequent transhipment.

France.—This trade represented a transhipment of a quantity of bricks and tiles direct from the importing vessels at Bombay to Trombay in the Thána District.

Eastern Coast of Africa—Zanzibar.—The imports of oil-cake noticed last year were not repeated.

Eastern Coast of Africa—Other Ports.—The imports comprised a small quantity of limestone received from Socotra and transhipped at Bombay for Surat.

Arabia—Muskat.—As mentioned in previous reports, the principal article received from Muskat is limestone pebbles, the imports of which were valued at Rs. 19,960 against Rs. 17,572 in 1891-92.

Mekran and Sonmiani.—The trade was nearly the same as last year, and comprised principally salted fish, and kappatas or mat-wrappers.

Turkey in Asia.—Dates were imported from Bassorah at Honore, Broach, and Dholera in larger quantities.

The articles comprised in the Foreign Import Trade are shown in the next table:—

The principal fluctuations in the imports are noticed below:—

Coal.—The imports of this article at Trombay valued in 1891-92 at Rs. 24,390 have almost entirely ceased owing to the completion of the Tansa Water-works.

Steam Engines and Parts thereof.—Last year a consignment of machinery was received at Broach in connection with the mills at that place, but in the year under report there were no imports under that head.

Steel Hoop—Was received at Broach, and Surat. The larger imports are ascribed to increased transhipments at Bombay to meet the demand which had improved owing to stocks having run short in these districts. The hoops are used principally for binding cotton bales.

Dates—Were imported in larger quantities direct from Bassorah at Honore, Broach, and Dholera as already mentioned above.

The exports to foreign countries direct from the continental ports are small and insignificant. This year they comprised sundry articles taken from Viziadurg, and Bulsár, by Nákodas of vessels returning to Mekran and Sonmiani. The treasure represented cash received by the same in payment for salted fish.

FOREIGN SHIPPING.

The following table shows the total number and tonnage of vessels which entered and cleared with cargoes from and to foreign ports during the years 1891-92 and 1892-93 :—

Total ...	103	6,766	149	11,570	+46	+14,784

Of the 102 vessels that entered, 48 were foreign, 27 being Arab, 20 Portuguese, and 1 Persian, and the remaining 54 Native craft.

Of the 47 vessels that cleared, 36 were Arab, 2 Portuguese, and 1 Persian, the remaining 8 being Native craft.

In foreign shipping the number of vessels that enter is always in excess of the number of those which clear, owing to the circumstance that vessels generally go direct to Coast ports from foreign countries and are consequently registered as foreign shipping, whereas on their return they usually clear for Bombay and are therefore entered as coasting shipping.

The number of vessels from foreign countries which entered and cleared in ballast from and to foreign ports in 1891-92 and 1892-93 is shown in the following table :—

COASTING.

The following statement shows the value of import and export trade of the coast ports of the Bombay Presidency with the rest of India and with each other during the years 1891-92 and 1892-93, Government transactions being distinguished from private trade, and merchandise and treasure being shown separately :—

The value of the total coasting trade of the continental ports including merchandise and treasure, exclusive of Government transactions, amounted to Rs. 6,89,40,453 against Rs. 6,93,86,704 in 1891-92, showing a falling off of Rs 4,46,251. Under merchandise the imports were valued at Rs. 2,30,23,620 and showed a smaller trade by Rs. 5,78,592, while the exports amounted in value to Rs. 4,51,87,971, exhibiting an improvement of Rs. 2,35,724 as compared with the previous year. The transactions in treasure amounted to Rs. 5,37,350, and Rs. 1,91,512, under imports and exports respectively, and showed a decline, in each case, of about half a lákh over the previous year. Imports and exports of Government stores and treasure were valued at Rs. 7,79,875, against Rs. 1,00,627 in 1891-92.

Madras Presidency.—The decrease in the value of imports from this Presidency was chiefly due to smaller transactions in cocoanut oil, cocoanut kernel, and rice and paddy, the very items that showed a larger trade in the preceding year. The crop of cocoanuts in Malabár is said to have been deficient, while rice and paddy, which is generally imported into North Kánara, was received in smaller quantities owing to good crops in that district. The details of the fluctuations are shown below :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.

Grain and Pulse, Rice and Paddy	2,17,726	1,06,220	....	1,11,407

Sind.—Here, too, the fluctuations are confined to the three principal items of the trade mentioned last year. The falling off in the imports is attributed to other sources of supply. The details of the fluctuations are shown below :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.

British Ports in the Bombay Presidency.

The interportal import trade of British ports within the Presidency was valued at Rs. 1,91,47,329, nearly the same as in 1891-92. The share of each range or district in the total trade is as follows :—

Name of District or Range.	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase in 1892-93.	Decrease in 1892-93.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Ratnagiri	69½	72½	3	....
Uran	21	20½	....	½
Thána	46½	51	4½	....
Surat	43	35½	....	7½

The value of merchandise imported at the ports of the Kárwár range was larger by Rs. 1,15,000, but the transactions in treasure fell off to the extent of Rs. 1,69,300. The fluctuations under the latter head depend upon the manner in which exported produce has been paid for, whether in cash or by hundis, or treasury orders, the latter are largely availed of by the native merchants of Kumta, and Kárwár. In the imports of merchandise the largest item of increase was salt, of which 1,400 tons, valued at Rs. 1,04,925, were imported this year against 853 tons of the value of Rs. 62,799 in 1891-92. This salt included that imported from the Konkan works as well as that sent by sea from Sánikatta to other ports in the range, and the increase in the imports is attributed to the termination of the Goa Treaty and the impossibility of getting Goa salt now in vessels of less than 300 tons burthen.

In the import trade of the Ratnágiri range the value of transactions in merchandise did not undergo much change; but the receipts of treasure consisting entirely of silver amounted to Rs. 3,49,700 against Rs 1,01,800 in the preceding year, showing a larger value by Rs. 2,47,900. The fluctuations in merchandise are spread over several items, the largest of which are shown below :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Cotton Twist and Yarn ..	1,58,150	1,24,973	....	33,177
Cotton Piece-goods—Grey	5,36,100	4,36,921	....	1,09,369

Salt	11,23,078	13,13,178	1,90,100	....
Treasure—Silver	1,01,800	3,49,700	2,47,900	....

The trade in cotton twist and yarn and cotton piece-goods is said to have been diverted in part to the Southern Maratha Railway causing a proportionate diminution in the imports by sea. The increase under kerosine oil is attributed partly to the more extensive use of the oil, and partly to the prohibitive rates of carriage by rail. The oil is largely imported at Vengurla, and Anjanvel, for transmission to the districts above the ghats. Salt was largely imported, as the stock in hand of the previous years' supply was a limited one. The transactions in treasure represented, for the most part, payments made for produce exported to Bombay.

The total import trade of the Uran range was valued this year at Rs. 20,87,624, much the same as in the preceding year.

The principal fluctuations are the following :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Cotton Piece-goods—Grey	83,239	58,002	... ...	25,237
Liquors—Spirits—Other sorts (Country Liquors)	1,98,469	7,02,794	84,325	... ...
Matches—Lucifer and other	57,500	16,589	... ...	40,911

This interportal trade fluctuates every year according to local requirements or the sources of supply.

The value of imports into the Thána range from British ports within the Presidency amounted to Rs. 51,08,431 against Rs. 46,32,226 in 1891-92, showing an improvement of Rs. 4,76,205 chiefly due to larger transactions in rice and paddy, kerosine oil, and salt. The details of the fluctuations are stated below :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Rice and Paddy	2,57,533	3,50,584	93,051	.....
Oils—Mineral—Kerosine... ...	1,92,897	3,81,585	2,00,988	.....
Salt	15,84,350	17,58,796	1,76,327	.....

All the three articles were received in larger quantities at the ports of Thána, and Kalyán, in the Trombay Táluka to be subsequently distributed by rail to places up-country. The kerosine oil is alleged to have been sent from Bombay to Kalyán to save haulage.

The decrease of more than 7 lákhs in the value of imports at ports in the Surat range is ascribed chiefly to smaller imports of the following articles :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.		Rs.
Cotton—Raw	2,97,341	1,11,736	.....	2,85,605

Rice and Paddy	7,01,780	6,19,295	.....	1,82,495
Sugar, Unrefined (Jágri) ...	4,87,398	4,06,398	.....	81,000

Cotton was received at Surat, and Broach, from Dholera on a restricted scale, as the crop at the latter place was a late one. Jowári and bájri, and rice and paddy, came in smaller quantities, as the crops of these grains in Gujarát were very large, while the smaller transactions in jágri (unrefined sugar) were attributed to surplus stocks of the previous year.

The import trade of the British ports within the Presidency in each article for the years 1891-92 and 1892-93, where the value is 1 lákh of rupees or over, is shown below in lákhs of rupees :—

Indian Ports not British.

Goa.—Almost half of the decrease in the value of imports from Goa was attributable to the entire stoppage of the trade in Goa salt on the termination of the treaty, though latterly some was imported in the coasting steamers. The other half of the falling off was confined chiefly to grain, the produce of the districts above the ghâts brought down to Marmagoa by rail. The scarcity that prevailed in the Dhárwár and other districts during at least the first half of the year restricted the trade.

Dáman and Diu.—Imports from these places were small, and comprised chiefly rice and paddy, and dried and salted fish, brought into the adjoining parts of Gujarát. The termination of the Anglo-Portuguese Treaty seems to have disturbed the trade for some time this year.

Mahé.—Cocoanuts and cocoanut kernel received into the Ratnágiri District showed a smaller value.

Foreign Konkan.—Imports of rice and paddy into the Ratnágiri District were on a smaller scale.

Cutch.—The decrease was chiefly due to the absence of any imports into the Surat District of raw cotton, which showed a value of Rs. 19,000 in the preceding year. Probably the increased supply from Káthiáwár sufficed to meet the requirements of that district.

Káthiáwár.—The principal fluctuation in the trade was an increase of Rs. 2,29,000 in the value of raw cotton, but as a set-off against this the imports of silver were less by Rs. 1,40,000. The cotton was received into the Surat District, where the supply of that article from Dholera was on a restricted scale. A quantity of the staple of the value of Rs. 19,000 was also landed at the ports of the Tárápur, and Ghodbandar tálukas by vessels overtaken by bad weather on their way to Bombay. The imports of treasure depend upon convenience of merchants and the rates of exchange.

Gáikwár's Ports.—The increase in the value of the import trade from these ports was partly due to the circumstance that a quantity of country spirit of the value of Rs. 8,935 was imported for the first time from the distillery at Navsári to Surat for transmission to Káthor by boats, and partly to greater imports of various sorts of grain at Surat, Broach, and Gogo.

Cambay.—Unmanufactured tobacco imported at Bulsár showed a larger value by Rs. 2,000.

Travancore.—The trade recorded last year was a casual occurrence.

Bengal Presidency.—Salt forms the only article of the export trade with this Presidency. The exports this year from salt-works in the Thána range were almost the same as last year, but those from Mátunga and Uran showed smaller values by Rs. 27,862 and Rs. 1,50,090, respectively. The restricted exports are attributed to higher rates of freight to Calcutta. The trade in salt in each of the years 1891-92 and 1892-93 was as follows :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
Indian Maunds ...	8,41,437	5,39,730	.....	1,91,707
Value—Rupees ...	18,28,941	15,89,210	.....	2,39,731

Madras Presidency.—The enhanced value of the trade was, for the most part, due to larger exports of grain, chiefly rice and paddy. The principal fluctuations are stated below :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Salt ... { Value	41,61,262	42,18,481	57,219	.....

The exports of rice and paddy as well as those of gram and of pulse were larger owing partly to the demand from the districts of the Madras Presidency affected by scarcity last year and partly to good monsoon and plentiful crops on the Southern Coast and in Gujarát. Shipments of grain—other sorts show a falling off, but the exports in 1891-92 were very heavy as compared with the preceding year. Salt was sent from Sánikatta in Kánara, Shiroda in Ratnágiri, and from the Uran and Thána ranges. The shipments from Sánikatta, and Shiroda, were larger; from the former place owing to prices running very low in consequence of the Sánikatta máliks trying to push their salt into the Madras Presidency, and from the latter on account of the termination of the Goa Treaty and the stoppage of trade in Goa salt. The removals from Thána were on the level of last year, but those from Uran showed a smaller trade owing to the excessive exports of the previous year. Sandalwood was exported from Kánara, where there have been lately extensive cuttings in the reserved forests.

Sind.—The important item in the exports to this province is spirits—other sorts, the head under which country liquor is registered. The shipments this year were larger, amounting to 39,726 gallons of the value of Rs. 1,64,465 against 33,804 gallons, valued at Rs. 1,42,328 in 1891-92. It is supplied from the distilleries at Uran.

British Ports within the Bombay Presidency.

This trade showed a diminished value of Rs. 2,43,700, the exports this year being valued at Rs. 3,20,71,787 against Rs. 3,23,15,487 of the previous year. The trade of each range is compared below with that of 1891-92, in lákhs of rupees:—

Name of District or Range.	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase in 1892-93.	Decrease in 1892-93.
Kánara	27½	26½	.....	1
Ratnágiri	8½	8¼	.....	¼
Uran	70½	69¾	¾	.....
Thána	51½	62½	9	.....
Surat	78¼	66¼	.....	7

There was a decline of about Rs. 81,000 in the trade of the Kánara range, chiefly attributable to smaller exports of betelnuts, cardamoms and other kind of spices. The principal fluctuations are noted below:—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Spices—Betelnuts	14,90,926	14,22,902	.....	67,996

Do. —Ornamental—Sandalwood ...	74,491	1,28,337	53,846	.....

The decline under betelnuts and spices—other sorts, was not large relatively to the extent of the trade, and as regards cardamoms the exports in 1891-92 were unusually large. Exports of wood largely depend upon the contracts given by the Forest Department. As already mentioned above, there were extensive cuttings of sandalwood in the year under review.

The value of exports from the Ratnágiri range was nearly the same as last year. The principal variations are shown below:—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Cotton—Raw	5,50,156	3,21,955	.....	2,28,201

Sugar—Unrefined	29,94,405	27,59,917	.....	2,34,488
Treasure—Silver	73,200	1,45,020	71,820	.....

The falling off in the exports of cotton raw, and sugar—unrefined, was attributed to the diversion of part of the trade to the Southern Marátha Railway, and the decline under myrabolams and cocoanuts, was the result of bad harvests. The remarkable increase under groundnuts is said to be due to an abundant crop of that article in the districts over the ghats and the high prices obtainable in Bombay. As regards treasure, the remittances of cash by sea depend upon the convenience of merchants and are liable to vary each year.

There was an improvement in the value of exports from the Uran range to the extent of Rs. 73,000. The principal fluctuations are:—

		1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
Grain and Pulse—Rice and Paddy	Rs.	13,70,312	13,54,410	.....	15,902
Do. —Other kinds ...	Rs.	74,808	62,624	.....	12,184

	Rs.	34,26,430	34,29,100	2,670	.....
Salt	Tons.	71,378	71,099	382	.....
	Rs.	24,91,701	26,04,180	1,12,479	.....

Rice and paddy and other grains were exported to a smaller extent owing to deficient crops on account of untimely rains. Spirits—other sorts (country liquor) showed a falling off of 59,496 gallons in quantity, but the value was larger by Rs. 2,676 on account of increased rates of duty prevailing over the whole year. In 1891-92 the enhanced duty was in force for only eight months. The decrease in quantity is ascribed to preference shown by consumers to toddy (raw spirit) over the distilled spirit and to restricted consumption on account of the completion of the Tánsa Water-works, on which large gangs of labourers requiring the liquor were employed. The increase under salt was attributable to the circumstance that the Karanja shilotris accepted this year low rates to clear off old stocks.

The export trade of the Thána range amounted to Rs. 62,56,584 against Rs. 57,64,627 of the previous year, showing an increase of Rs. 4,91,957. The chief fluctuations are noted below :—

		1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
Dyeing and Tanning Materials—Myrabolams	Rs.	2,31,230	1,64,603	....	66,627
Grain and Pulse—Jowári and Bájri	..	37,000	2,739	....	34,261
Do. Rice and Paddy	..	35,51,573	31,19,070	5,94,891	....
Provisions—Dried Fish	..	2,94,307	1,70,681	....	23,626
Salt	Tons	7,711	9,307	595	....
	Value Rs.	6,26,240	6,76,740	50,500	....
Wood—Firewood	Rs.	2,94,067	3,30,246	36,679	....

The decrease under myrabolams was attributed to a restricted crop, and that under jowári and bájri to the same cause, the crops in the latter case having been spoiled by heavy rains. Fish—dried—exhibited an improvement in quantity, but declined in value owing to an abundant supply. Almost the whole of the trade done in rice and paddy was confined to the Trombay Táluka, where large quantities were received by sea to be subsequently distributed by rail to places up-country affected with scarcity. The improvement under salt was due to larger exports by way of Thána from salt-works of the Trombay Táluka, and that under firewood to extensive cuttings in the Bassein, Ghodbandar, and Tárápur tálukas.

The principal fluctuations in the export trade of Surat range are the following :—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Cotton—Raw ..	30,79,738	24,58,645	....	6,21,093
„ Twist and Yarn ..	4,81,497	6,10,258	....	1,71,969
Grain and Pulse—Wheat ..	2,13,500	6,25,303	4,11,803	....
Treasure—Silver ..	1,42,909	27,000	....	1,15,909

Cotton, and cotton twist and yarn, were largely exported to Bombay from Surat, Broach, and Dholera, but the trade was on a smaller scale on account of unsatisfactory prices. It is also probable that part of this trade was diverted to the B. B. & C. I. Railway, which has lately reduced the rates for these articles. Wheat was largely sent to Bombay, probably for transmission to European countries.

The trade in each article of the value of Rs. 1 lákh or over is shown below in lákhs of rupees for the two years 1891-92 and 1892-93 :—

Indian Ports not British.

Goa.—The increase in this trade was chiefly due to larger exports of salt from salt-works in the Uran and Thána ranges. The shipments this year amounted to 7,465 tons valued at Rs. 5,75,322, against 5,385 tons of the value of Rs. 4,18,121 in 1891-92. Amongst other fluctuations cocoanut oil showed a falling off of Rs. 46,000, and rice and paddy, and kerosine oil, of about Rs. 10,000 each. The two illuminants would appear to have been imported, the former from Malabár, and the latter from Bombay, direct at Marmagoa, instead of their being taken to that place by way of Vengurla, while the restricted exports of rice and paddy are ascribed to the levying of export duty on that article since the termination of the Anglo-Portuguese Treaty.

Daman.—The trade in salt, which last year represented a value of Rs. 25,928, appears to have ceased, as the article can be manufactured locally since the termination of the treaty already alluded to.

Diu.—Rice and pulse were exported in larger quantities.

Foreign Konkan.—The exports of salt showed a diminished value of about Rs. 7,300, those of country liquor, and sugar—unrefined giving an improvement of Rs. 3,000, and Rs. 3,700, respectively. The salt, and liquor, were supplied from Uran, and the sugar from the Ratnágiri District. The trade varies according to local requirements.

States of Cochin and Travancore.—The trade represents shipments of salt made to these States according to their requirements. The salt exported this year was purchased at works in both the Uran, and Thána ranges.

Cutch.—The improvement in the trade with this province was chiefly due to larger transactions in jágri registered in the trade returns as sugar – unrefined. The article was exported, for the most part, from Anjanvel, Viziadurg, and Ratnágiri, to which ports it is brought down for shipment from over the ghâts. Favourable prices in Cutch appear to have stimulated the exports. Ghee is also another item of increase showing an improvement of Rs. 9,144, it was also brought down from over the ghâts and shipped at Vengurla. Under decreases, seeds—other sorts, representing for the most part cotton seed, showed a smaller trade by Rs. 27,724: they are usually sent from Surat, where the cotton crop this year is said to have been deficient.

Káthiáwár.—The value of this trade was much the same as in the previous year. The fluctuations are spread over several items, of which the following are the principal:—

	1891-92.	1892-93.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Cakes and Rottans	1,31,792	1,30,351	67,459	.....
Cotton—Raw	91,642	12,004	.....	79,638
Grain and Pulse—Rice	2,30,305	3,79,304	1,22,009	.....
Teak and other Timber	1,74,479	2,52,480	78,072	.....
Seeds—Other sorts (including for the most part Cotton Seed)	6,78,954	5,21,076	.....	1,56,979

The bulk of the trade is carried on with the ports of the Thána, and Surat ranges, and varies every year according to local requirements. Cotton, and cotton seed, were exported this year in smaller quantities from the Surat District, where the cotton crop is said to have been below the average.

Gáikwár's Ports.—Most of the trade is done with the ports of the Surat, and Thána ranges. Shipments of unrefined sugar, wheat, and cotton seed, showed this year larger values by Rs. 30,000, Rs. 16,000 and Rs. 14,000, respectively.

Cambay.—Teakwood and sugar—unrefined, were exported in larger quantities to the value of Rs. 25,100 and Rs. 20,200, respectively, while shipments of paddy (rice) showed a falling off of Rs. 19,600. The trade is mostly done with ports in the Surat and Thána ranges.
